

We may still have freedom of speech
but are losing are freedom to be heard.
Our so-called "newspapers of record" seem to be printing what the government tells them is acceptable. A democracy cannot survive without a free press.